WEATHER REPORT

National Weather Bureau.

Temperatures throughout the country during the coming week will be near the seasonal average, and rains or snows will be below the normal over most of the states, says the Weather Bureau's weekly forecast:

Rains will be frequent, however, in the North Pacific States and the weather will be unsettled, with local snows along the northern border from Minnesota eastward. Over the southern half of the country the week will be one of generally fair weather. A disturbance of moderate intensity will appear in the Far West and be followed by colder weather.

FARMER KILLS HIMSELF IN BED

Sound of the Rifle Shots. Tragedy Takes Place Near Hanover. Leaves Wife and Six Children.

After having wasted an inheritance from his mother, said to have been more than $1,000, and finding himself, through excessive drinking, it is said, in straightened circumstances, dren, committed suicide Saturday at ternoon between the hours of 2.30 and 5 o'clock by shooting himsel: twice through the mouth with a 22-calibre

Bechtel, in order to prevent the report from being heard by his family, downstairs, got into bed and wrapped the bed clothing about the rifle before he discharged it. He was found in the bed with the clothing covering the weapon, the barrel of which was still in his mouth. The bed clothing was still saturated with his blood.

There was a quantity of blood found in a wash bowl, which, it is believed, came from his mouth after inflicting the first wound. As the rifle when found was in a postion with the barel in his mouth, that would have sent a bullet into the roof of his mouth, it 's supposed that the first wound was Dougherty, Carrie Rudisill, Harriet that received in the throat. As no report was heard by the family, both shots were fired while he was in bed. t is supposed. Two wounds were discovered, one in the throat, the other in he roof of the mouth. The plate of a set of false teeth was shattered. Neither bullet was recovered.

Bechtel was a man of kindly disposition and exceedingly well liked among his neighbors. He had been drinking somewhat freely during the veek, and Wednesday had spent the night at the police headquarters in

Saturday he had been working about the house and barn, as usual but at dinner he ate little and seemed nelancholy. At 2 o'clock, declaring that he was not feeling well, he went to his room. After a half hour the family became suspicious and his eldest daughter, Mrs. Spurgeon Emspacher, went to the room. Mr. Bechel appeared to be asleep, but it is ow thought he was only shamming. At 4.30 o'clock his daugter Edna alled him for supper, and when he fid not appear she went to the room and found him dead. Edna called Wil iam Webster, a helper on the farm, and the alarmed family then went ino the room. Justice of the Peace John Vitmer, of Hanover, was notified but, fier learning the circumstances of leath, he decided that an inquest was lettysbur's Pride will Pitch for

Sunday's Philadelphia North Amerian told of Eddie Plank's decision o join the Athletics for the coming Connie Mack got Gettysburg, Pa., on he long distance phone yesterday afernoon. He talked many minutes to lisping voice on the other end. At he finish of the conversation Connie nung the receiver up and announced hat Eddie Plank, the Cy Young of outhpaws, had agreed to crossfire nother year with the Athletics.

The news that Eddie was coaxed ino changing his mind about retiring omes as gladsome tidings to the local basball tongs For a time it seemed certain that Plank would quit s he has been on the verge of retirng for several seasons.

Mr. Mack had to talk like an insurince agent to convince Plank that 1913 was no kind of a year in which o retire from bathball. The tall tutor irew such a vivid picture of the falacy of any ball player, particularly a eft-handed pitcher, quitting the game in such a year as the present one that Plank began to listen atten-

Then Mack drove the point home stronger, although the talk was costng him 75 cents for three minutes and 25 cents for each extra minute.

As Mack is a deliberate orator, he can do no more than 100 words a minite, so it is little wonder that at the anish, the phone girl told him he owed Mr. Bell's company $7.75. But who wouldn't pay §7.75 for a pitcher like Plank?

Returning to the conversation, Mack worked Plank into a corner and told nim that he would be a fine type of nental bantam weight to duck the Athletics in a year when they looked like sure pennant vinners. Mr. Mack also opined that the world series check next fall would be a handy thing for a saving man's bank account. At the words "series check," Mr. Mack could almost hear Plank's ears prick. Eddie interrupted Connie and told him that he had said enough.

"I'll put my signed contract in the mails tonight," no broke in "and board the San Antonio express at Harrisburg. Tell the engineer not to forget to stop. S'long, Connie," and the rebellion of Eddie Plank ended.

DREADFUL SCENE OF CARNAGE

Bodies of Dead Men and Horses Removed From the Streets and Disease Breeding Debris Burned.

Mexico City, Mex., Feb. 17.-The ruce between President Madero and General Diaz ended at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon by mutual consent. At nightfall machine guns on the roof of the arsenal were sweeping the San Juan plaza, south of the Alameda, wheer the federal troops had taken position for a renewal of the assaults on the rebel fortress.

There were sorties from the arsenal and Felicistas and Maderistas fought with the bayonet in the narrow streets between the market and the citadel. There was considerable loss of life,

The American residents are safer han at any time since the revolt began. Although Madero and Diaz had agreed early Sunday morning upon a venty-four-hour armistice they broke he truce after twelve hours. This gave sufficient time, however, for the American ambassador to remove hundreds of his countrymen from the cener of the city to the Colonia Roma and the Colonia Juarez.

None but one who has witnessed the orrors of the past week can appreiate the extent of the public rejolcing then it became known that a truce ad been declared by mutual consent f the combatants. For seven days a ity of 500,000 people had endured a warfare which recognized none of the of civilized fighting. Six-inch guns had dueled at a range of the finest streets of the city with their hells. Night and day the people were larmed by the terrific roar of the annonading and were driven from nuarter to quarter as the zone of the ighting extended. All classes suffered. en er of the city were in better case han the unfortunates of the red light listrict. Dozens of fine mansions were arm or leg when restored by hospita wrecked or burned. Some of the most ornamental buildings of the capital will have to be rebuilt at enormous expense. In the mad warfare in the heart of a great city neither Madero nor Diaz counted the cost.

A conservative estimate places the number of dead in the week's fighting at 1000 and the number of wounded at more than 1500. This includes citi zens and foreign residents as well as soldiers. The Mederistas were by far the heaviest losers. Diaz lost probably fifty killed and 200 wounded. The federal troops, because of their hope less frontal attacks on the arsenal in the face of deadly machine gun fire, lost probably 600 in killed and 1000 in

The Measure Contains Provisions For Federal Buildings In Washington to Save It From Veto.

Wasshington, Feb. 17 .- The Democratic public building bill, carrying appropriations for $25,643,800, has been reported to the house.

The bili discloses a Keystone state allotment of $1,030,000, and as an odd coincidence-of course it is not more Hanover, $10,000; Media, $60,000; Dubbis, $85,000; Pottstown, $90,000; Sou h Bethlehem, $100,000; Lock Haven, $100,000; Pittston, $100,000; Lewistown, $75,000; Berwick, $80,000; Tamaqua, $75,000; Sayre, $80,000. The purchase of a site at Tyrone is authorized, to cost $25,000. For a new site at Lancaster $80,000 is allowed.

Among the New Jersey items car ried in the bill are $50,000 for a build ing at Morristown; $55,000 at Wood bury; $70,000 at Vineland, and $10,000 for a site at Salem.

The contest for a public building etween Salisbury and Cambridge, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, was between Salisbury and Cambridge, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, was tation.
